KENTUCKY INSTITUTE FOR COURT INTERPRETING

The University of Arizona's National Center for Interpretation (NCI), in collaboration with the Kentucky Court of Justice and the University of Louisville, is pleased to offer the Kentucky Institute for Court Interpreting (KICI) in Frankfort, Kentucky.

The first two days of the training are language neutral, and open to all legal interpreters working in any language. Spanish interpreters choose between a beginning and an advanced track for the first two days.

The last three days are focused on intensive Spanish <> English interpreter training.

Training topics include:

- The Role of the Court Interpreter
- Court Interpreter Ethics & Protocol
- Legal Procedures & Terminology
- Consecutive Interpreting
- Simultaneous Interpreting
- Sight Translation

Utilizing its renowned Agnese Haury Institute legal interpreter curriculum and trainers, this training is an excellent opportunity for interpreters to develop their knowledge and skills through hands-on practice.
